1. Fort Otopeni is located on the Bucharest-Ploesti state highway, about fourteen kilometers from Bucharest. The fort was bombed during World War II, and at present is being repaired by Soviet experts. The fort covers an area of 800 by 500 meters and is surrounded by two rows of barbed wire (two meters high). The fort is armed with heavy artillery weapons.
2. Fort Mogosoaia is located on the Mogosoaia-Chitila highway about four kilometers from Mogosoaia. It was demolished during World War II and is now being repaired by the Soviets. It covers an area of 800 by 500 meters.
3. Fort Chitila is located about two kilometers southwest of Chitila.
4. Fort Jilava (Dadilov) is used to intern political prisoners and to carry out death penalties.
5. Fort Catelu which was abandoned before World War II has been repaired and now serves as a depot for military equipment.
6. Fort Tunari is used to experiment on new explosives.
7. All the above forts were recently connected by a railroad track. This was done under the orders and management of the Soviets.
